DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the fixing means, orientable fins, must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 14 recites the limitation "the side edges" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 15 recites the limitation "the ridge line" in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3749

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-11 and 18-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Takahashi (5,194,043). See fig. 2 and 3. Regarding claims 3 and 4, see col. 5, lines 66-68. Regarding claim 11, see fig. 18.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim(s) 12-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Takahashi in view of Reuter (4,535,685). Takahashi discloses all of the limitations of the claim(s) except for the vane being roofshaped. Reuter discloses the presence of a vane being roofshaped. See col. 5, lines 14-26. Hence, one skilled in the art would find it obvious to modify the system of Takahashi to include the vane being roofshaped of Reuter for the purpose of better airflow directing.

Regarding claim 15, Takahashi in view of Reuter discloses all of the limitations of the claim except for the pins being positioned approx. one third of the distance across the width of the pitch from the ridge line between the two pitches. However, since the applicant has failed to establish any criticality or synergistic results which are derived from the recited configurations, these limitations are considered a matter of obvious design choice. Thus, the applicant's design configurations would have been an obvious improvement to one of ordinary skill in the art with regard to the apparatus disclosed in Takahashi in view of Reuter.

Art Unit: 3749

Claim(s) 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Takahashi in view of McConnell (4,341,150). Takahashi discloses all of the limitations of the claim(s) except for the cap being fabricated from plastic material. McConnell discloses the presence of a cap being fabricated from plastic material. See col. 3, lines 4-13. Hence, one skilled in the art would find it obvious to modify the system of Takahashi to include the cap being fabricated from plastic material of McConnell for the purpose of ease of manufacture.

Claim(s) 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Takahashi in view of Suzuki et al. (5,771,708). Takahashi discloses all of the limitations of the claim(s) except for the air-conditioning unit being capable of being fitted on a wall. Suzuki et al. discloses the presence of an air-conditioning unit being capable of being fitted on a wall. See col. 2, lines 64-67. Hence, one skilled in the art would find it obvious to modify the system of Takahashi to include the air-conditioning unit being capable of being fitted on a wall of Suzuki et al. for the purpose of increased applicability.
